

ZACH KLEIN
COLUMBUS CITY ATTORNEY

MEDIA ADVISORY

Wednesday, July 10, 2019

Contact: Meredith Tucker, 614.965.0203

Email: mctucker@columbus.gov

Columbus City Attorney Zach Klein Offering Latest in Series of Free Community Legal Clinics

City Attorney's office, Nationwide, Legal Aid, PACT and Poindexter Center partnering in clinic covering 'The Law, Money, and You'

COLUMBUS—Today, Wednesday, July 10, 2019, Columbus City Attorney Zach Klein will kick-off his office's latest free community legal clinic in partnership with Nationwide and the Legal Aid Society of Columbus. Following a community dinner, the clinic, entitled The Law, Money, and You, will feature a short presentation and professional advice catered to seniors about how to recognize a scam and protect oneself from theft. After the presentation, the free legal clinic will take place with lawyers who will offer one-on-one advice regarding financial matters and other related topics.

"It's a priority for us to continue finding ways for the City Attorney's office to serve our community," said Columbus City Attorney Zach Klein. "I want to thank Nationwide, the Legal Aid Society of Columbus, and Poindexter Center for partnering with us in this new clinic, and look forward to the opportunity to share helpful legal and financial advice with community members."

The community legal clinics feature rotating topics and partnering law firms, corporations, and community organizations. City Attorney Klein will open the event with brief remarks.

WHO: Lawyers and representatives from the office of Columbus City Attorney Zach Klein, Nationwide, Legal Aid Society of Columbus and PACT (Partners Achieving Community Transformation); community members

WHAT: Free Community Legal Clinic: "The Law, Money, and You"

WHEN: Today, Wednesday, July 10 – Dinner at 5:30 p.m.; Program at 6:30 p.m.

WHERE: Poindexter Center, 211 Champion Avenue, Columbus OH 43203

###